Clarification of News Report

This refers to your request for clarification and/or confirmation of the news articles entitled "Wilcon Depot spending P2.8 B for expansion" posted in philstar.com on June 18, 2019. The article reported in part that:

"MANILA, Philippines — Wilcon Depot Inc., the listed home and office supplies company, is pouring in P2.8 billion in capital expenditures this year for further expansion as it opens new depots and distribution centers.

We confirm the aforesaid statement of Mr. William T. Belo. As published in the company's press release entitled Wilcon Depot Reports First Quarter 2019 Results released on May 14, 2019, "the Company have expended P750 million on capex in the first quarter in its continued expansion. For the rest of the year Wilcon is set to open six to seven more depot scattered all over the country, after the two opened so far this year. Six of the existing branches are also being expanded along with the distribution centers in support of the expanding store network." Thus, in view of the ongoing store construction, renovation, extension and additional distribution centers, the Company's estimated capital expenditure is P2.7B to P2.8B.

We trust that the Company has addressed your request for clarification.
